

About the Foundation

Our mission is to provide life changing educational opportunities for outstanding Australians from all fields of endeavour who demonstrate remarkable qualities of leadership and have the ability to deliver outcomes and inspire others for the benefit of Australia.

The Foundation administers prestigious postgraduate scholarships for Australia's brightest scholars. The John Monash Scholarships are a nation-building initiative, providing exceptional overseas educational opportunities and international networks for future generations of Australian leaders.

The Foundation's Board is drawn from business, academia and the community. The Governor-General of Australia, His Excellency General the Honourable Sir Peter Cosgrove AK MC (Retd.) is Patron-in- Chief of the Foundation.

John Monash Scholars

15-20 John Monash Scholarships are awarded each year, supporting up to three years of postgraduate study with the scholars receiving $70,000 per year (indexed to costs of tuition) as well as mentoring, administration support, Alumni Community and leadership activities and ongoing engagement with the Foundation.

Since 2002, 165 John Monash Scholars have been selected. Our John Monash Scholars are achieving prominence in key areas such as medical research, health delivery, science, engineering, sustainability, business, innovation, international relations, defence and the arts.
